

A Girl To Remember

I remember her laughter
I remember her hair
I remember her lips
I remember her brows
I remember her lashes
I remember her cheekbones
twirl
smile
grace
eyes
But I remember her pain
I remember her laughter
But that was before

This is after

On The Edge

What happens when there's no more space?

To run

To hide

To hide your face

Hide in the trees

Hide in the woods

Still, you won't be understood

People say i'm a body with nothing left

But i've been robbed of hope

I call it theft

Spin the needle, weave the thread

This cycle is coming to an end.

The Game of Life

I'm cold in the winter
Warm in the summer
What's the point of it all?
Leafs are turning
The wind is blowing
Is life just one dance at a ball?

Dance the dance
Sing the song
Jump and prance
It may not last as long

Dance the dance
Sing the song
Jump the rope
Write the words
Play your role
Never asking why

Dance the dance
Sing the song
Some are just not meant to fly

Finding Love In Such A World

Always hidden
Rarely found
Specialities forbidden
Beware for all can come unbound
The frog jumps from log to log
Never knowing what he is to get
Never knowing what's across the fog
Love has turned into hate
Falling far from its fate
So hungry for love, the world you could devour
For some, love has died and they cower
One wrong jump could change it all
One mistake could make dreams fall
Most encourage the frog to spree
But the ones who don't, never let him free

Rain No More

Rain fall
Rain pour
Go away
And rain no more

Rain pour
Shine your light
And rain no more
Drizzle away

Shine your light
Do your thing
Drizzle away
Come back next spring

Do your thing
Though beautiful to watch
Come back next spring
Stop your rumble

Though beautiful to watch
You scare
Stop your rumble
People beware

You scare
You give, you take
People beware
Beware of the lake

You give, you take
Water to all
Beware of the lake
And the thunder call

Water to all
Rain fall

And the thunder call
Go away
